Ron Bremner comes to the Flames following a 23 year career in broadcasting and marketing. In addition to his business credentials, Bremner's personal assets include his openness, honesty and people skills. He is a team-builder, motivator, creative marketer and experienced businessman. Al Coates

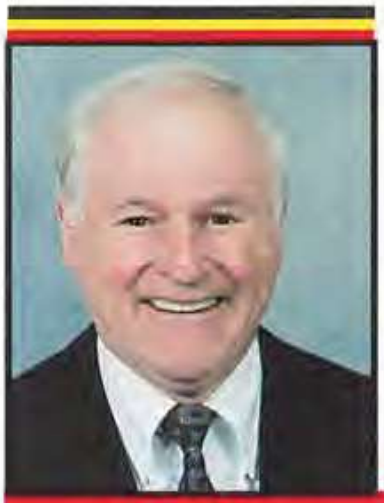
Following a playing career in Europe, Coates joined the Detroit Red Wings organization in 1971. He spent nine seasons with the Red Wings, working in various capacities. In the summer of 1980, he joined the Flames as the team's Director of Public Relations. In August, 1982, Coates was named as the Assistant to the President, working directly with then President and General Manager, Cliff Fletcher in a number of hockey administrative capacities. Later, on August 1, 1989, he was promoted to Director of Hockey Administration. He continued his progression through the organization when, on September 8, 1991, he was named the team's Assistant General Manager, a position he held until his promotion to Executive Vice President.

Coates' work has involved player contracts, coordinating professional scouting, and working with the Flames development team in Saint John (AHL). His progressive management and leadership style has helped shape the Flames franchise into a successful, respected organization both on and off the ice.

DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

As the Flames Director of Hockey Operations, Al MacNeil is involved in hockey-related matters at all levels.



Al MacNeil

This is MacNeil's 18th season with the Flames franchise. He served as head coach for three seasons (1979-82) and assistant general manager for seven years (1982-89), before advancing to the hockey operations area for the past seven seasons.

Nothing about the game is new to this veteran hockey person. Now in his 41st season in professional hockey, he has been active, and successful, in nearly every phase of the game, both on and off the ice.

He played 10 seasons in the NHL as a rugged defenceman with the Toronto Maple Leafs, Montreal Canadiens, Chicago Blackhawks, Pittsburgh Penguins, and the NY Rangers. In 1968 he turned to the coaching ranks with the Houston Apollos, a farm club of Montreal's. MacNeil moved into the NHL coaching ranks in 1970 and guided Montreal to a Stanley Cup championship title that season. He became the 12th coach in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup in his rookie season. The Flames 1989 Stanley Cup victory gave MacNeil his fourth Stanley Cup ring.

MacNeil was named GM-Head Coach of the Nova Scotia Voyageurs (AHL) prior to the start of the 1971-72 season. In six seasons with Montreal's top farm club, he coached the Voyageurs to four first-place finishes and three Calder Cup championships. He also served as an assistant coach for Team Canada in both the 1976 and 1981 Canada Cup tournaments.

MacNeil was named head coach of the Flames in 1979, a position he held for three seasons. He was behind the bench when the Flames arrived in Calgary in 1980. During his first season in Calgary, he led the Flames to the Stanley Cup semi-finals.

In 1980, Al was inducted into the Nova Scotia Hall of Fame.

His four-year NHL coaching record stands at 134-108-53 (.544%) in 295 career games. On Sept. 12, 1982 he officially left the coaching ranks to work in the hockey management area.

Al and his wife Norma have two children. They reside in Calgary year-round.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Nick Polano

Nick Polano first joined the Calgary Flames organization in the 1992-93 season as Director of Pro Scouting. In August 1996 Nick was elevated to the position of Director of Player Personnel. In this newly appointed position, Nick will be responsible for the overall administration of all scouting and the Saint John farm club. He will also continue to be responsible for the organization's pro scouting program.

Polano was the first head coach of the Mike Ilitch regime in 1982-83 for the Detroit Red Wings. Detroit ended a five-year playoff drought with successive third-place finishes and postseason berths in '83-84 and '84-85. From 1985 through the '91-92 season, Nick served as Detroit's Assistant General Manager and performed various administrative and scouting duties. In his last season with Detroit in '91-92 while overseesing the AHL's Adirondack Red Wings, they went on to win the Calder Cup.

Polano joined the Red Wings after spending the '81-82 season as an assistant coach under Scotty Bowman with the Buffalo Sabres.

Nick began his coaching career in '75-76 at Erie, Pennsylvania of the EHL. He guided the club to three consecutive regular-season and playoff championships, and twice was the league's Coach-of-the-Year. He also was honoured by The Hockey News as Minor League Executive of the Year in 1981.

A native of Copper Cliff, Ontario, Nick was a defenceman in his playing days. He played his junior hockey with Hamilton and then spent 15 seasons with Baltimore, Hershey and Providence (AHL), and Philadelphia (WHA).

HEAD COACH

Pierre Page became the ninth Head Coach in Flames franchise history, and seventh in Calgary, on July 17, 1995. For Page, the announcement signaled a return to the organization where he began his professional career. Respected as one of the top hockey minds in the game today, Page is entering his 14th season in the National Hockey League.

In his first season as the Flames Head Coach, Page led the team to a 34-37-11 record. Overcoming a slow start (only five wins in the first 25 games), Page led the Flames to a comeback in the second half of the season which saw them earn second place in the Pacific Division.

Before resuming his tenure with the Flames, Page spent the '94-95 season working as a pro scout with the Toronto Maple Leafs and assisting Canada's National Team.

Pierre Page

On May 4, 1990 Page became General Manager of the Quebec Nordiques. One season later, on Nov. 17, 1991, he added the responsibilities of Head Coach to his resume. Page spent three seasons with Quebec from 1990-93. He inherited a team that was coming off a 31-point season and had failed to qualify for post-season play for the third consecutive year. Three seasons later, in 1992-93, the Nordiques finished fourth overall in the NHL standings with 104 points, and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in six seasons. In earning their playoff spot, Quebec posted a 56-point improvement from '91-92 to '92-93, ranked as one of the largest improvements in National Hockey League history

Page's first term as an NHL Head Coach began with the Minnesota North Stars prior to the start of the 1988-89 season. In his rookie season with Minnesota, the North Stars posted a 19-point improvement over the previous year and earned their first playoff berth in three seasons. In 1989-90, the North Stars continued to improve, finishing the season with 76 points (36-40-4) and qualifying for the playoffs for a second consecutive season.

In 1985-86, Page served as an assistant to Flames Head Coach Bob Johnson, and helped guide the Flames to their first Stanley Cup Final appearance. He remained with the team as an assistant coach through the 1987-88 season under Terry Crisp.

Page originally joined the Calgary Flames in 1980-81 as an assistant coach to Al MacNeil, currently the team's Director of Hockey Operations. He served in that capacity through the 1981-82 season, before accepting the position of General Manager and Head Coach of the Flames top development club in Denver (1982-84), and later, Moncton (1984-85).

Page has also served as a guest coach with the 1980 Canadian Olympic Team and an assistant coach with Team Canada in the 1981 Canada Cup.

Prior to joining the Flames organization in 1980, Page served as Head Coach at Dalhousie University. With his foresight and hockey knowledge, he developed Dalhousie from relative hockey obscurity into one of the top university hockey programs. In 1978-79, for the first time in 60 years, a Dalhousie team won the Maritimes Championship. That season, he would go on to guide the Tigers to a second place finish in the National Final. During this period, Page also worked in Halifax with Al MacNeil where the latter was coaching the Nova Scotia Voyageurs (AHL), Montreal's top development club.

Pierre, a native of St. Hermas, Quebec and his wife Donna have one daughter, Lauren. They reside year-round in Calgary.

ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin Constantine

Kevin Constantine joins the Flames as an Assistant Coach this season. Head Coach, Pierre Page has known Constantine since 1988 when he was assistant coach for the Kalamazoo Wings (IHL). "He is a progressive, dedicated coach", stated Page, "with a track record of success that speaks for itself."

Constantine, who turns 38 in December 1996, started the last three seasons as Head Coach of the San Jose Sharks. In his rookie season as an NHL coach in 1993-94, he led the Sharks to a league-record 58 point improvement over the previous season, earning himself the runner-up spot for the Jack Adams Award as NHL Coach of the Year. Constantine guided the Sharks to two major playoff upsets, eliminating Detroit in first round action in 1993-94 and handing Calgary the same fate in 1994-95. During his tenure with the Sharks, Constantine coached his young team to a 55-78-20 record.

Constantine has enjoyed success at every level in his coaching career. He spent two seasons with the Kansas City Blades (IHL), leading them to a combined two-season record of 102-48-14 and the league championship (Turner Cup) in 1991-92. He earned IHL Coach of the Year honours in 1991-92. Other coaching highlights include guiding the US National Team to a fourth place finish at the 1991 World Jr. Championships and leading Rochester to the USHL National Jr. A title in 1987-88.

Kevin and his wife Peggy will make their new home in Calgary.

ASSISTANT COACH

Guy Lapointe

Last season (August, 1995) when Flames Head Coach Pierre Page was looking to add respect, defensive experience, and a proven winner to the team's coaching staff, he looked no further than the organization's scouting staff.

Guy Lapointe, 48, joined the Flames coaching staff as an assistant coach on Aug. 10, 1995.

One of the all-time great players in the history of the game, Lapointe began his NHL career with the Montreal Canadiens in 1968. Through the mid-'70's, Lapointe, along with fellow teammates Serge Savard and Larry Robinson, formed one of the top defence corps in NHL history.

Lapointe played 884 NHL career games with Montreal, St. Louis and Boston, recording 622 career points (171g, 451a). He also appeared in 123 career playoff games.

A member of five Stanley Cup championship teams, all with Montreal (1973, 1976, 1977, 1978, 1979), Lapointe played 13 of his 16 NHL seasons with the Canadiens. He appeared in four All-Star games, including three consecutive games from 1975-77.

Lapointe was named to the NHL's First All-Star team following the 1972-73 season. He was selected to the NHL's Second All-Star squad in three consecutive seasons ('74-75, '75-76, '76-77).

His career accomplishments were given the athlete's ultimate recognition on May 16, 1993, when he was elected into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Following his retirement as an active player in 1983-84, Lapointe joined the Quebec Nordiques as an assistant coach. After one season with the Nordiques, he was appointed General Manager and Head Coach of the Longueuil Chevaliers of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

He spent two seasons with Longueuil, leading the Chevaliers to the 1987 Quebec League championship title, and a berth in the Memorial Cup championship tournament.

Lapointe returned to the National Hockey League and the Nordiques as an assistant coach prior to the start of the '87-88 season. He spent the next three seasons with Quebec, leaving the team after the '89-90 season. He joined the Flames organization as a full-time scout in July, 1990 evaluating amateur players throughout the hockey world.

Guy and his wife Louise have three children.

ASSISTANT COACH

Bill Hughes

Bill Hughes, in his second season with the Flames coaching staff, brings a wealth of hockey knowledge to the organization. A former assistant coach with the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds of the Ontario Hockey League, Bill joined the Flames on September 26, 1995. A graduate of Michigan Tech University, where he starred for his college hockey team, Hughes brings extensive experience to the Flames.

He began his professional career with the Houston Aeros of the World Hockey Association during the 1972-73 season. Later, he joined the NY Islanders' organization, playing behind the Hall of Fame netminder Billy Smith and Glenn "Chico" Resch. Following his playing career, Hughes signed on as a goaltending consultant with Sault Ste. Marie (OHL).

Hughes' coaching experience also includes time in the international arena. He served as an assistant coach with the Italian National team, including competing at the 1993 World Championships in Munich, Germany and the 1994 Winter Olympics at Lillehammer, Norway.

He also led a pair of European teams to their respective championships in that time. Alleghe, of the Italian First Division, captured the 1993 Alpine League Championships, while Feldkirk won the 1994 Austrian Championship. His international coaching resume also includes a stint with Ambri-Piotta of the Swiss First Division.

Hughes served a total of five seasons with Sault Ste. Marie as both a goaltending consultant and full-time assistant coach. He was named interim Head Coach for the Greyhounds for the final four games of the '94-95 OHL season.'

DEVELOPMENT COACH

Jamie Hislop

Jamie Hislop will be returning for his sixth season with the Calgary Flames coaching staff.

In this position Jamie acts as a liaison with the players in the system, touching base with them after they get drafted but before they turn pro to enhance the communication process between the club and its draft choices.

Hislop, 42, joined the Flames coaching staff on Aug. 29, 1991 after spending two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with Salt Lake (IHL), the Flames top development club. Salt Lake (IHL), under the guidance of head coach Bob Francis and assistant Hislop, compiled an 87-64-14 record (.570%) during Hislop's tenure.

Following a college career at the University of New Hampshire, Hislop began his eight-year playing career with the Cincinnati Stingers of the World Hockey Association. Through a series of drafts and trades, he joined the Quebec Nordiques for their initial NHL season (1979-80), and went on to register a 19-goal season. The next year he posted his career high in goals, netting 25 (19 Quebec, 6 Calgary).

On Jan. 30, 1981, he was obtained by the Calgary Flames in exchange for goaltender Dan Bouchard. He played 215 career games as a Flame, scoring 37 goals and 98 points (37g, 61a). The 215 games played as a Flame represents Hislop's longest stint with one club.

A two-time Masterton nominee for dedication to the game of hockey, Hislop is renowned for his superb physical conditioning. From the start of his professional career through the beginning of the 1983-84 season, Hislop missed only one contest (524 games) due to injury. That was to end on Dec. 1, 1983 when he was accidently struck in the eye by an opponent's stick. Following surgery, Hislop returned to play nine games with the Flames, but the injury eventually forced him to retire as a player.

He immediately joined the Flames coaching staff for the 1984-85 season, acting as an assistant coach and special assignment scout. Following the season, he decided to pursue a teaching career.

Jamie and his wife Laurie have three children. The Hislops reside in Calgary year-round.

PHYSICAL THERAPIST & FITNESS COORDINATOR

Terry Kane

Terry Kane, hired by the Flames on Sept. 8, 1995, is entering his second season as the Flames physiotherapist. Kane is responsible for the coordination of fitness testing, both in and off season, medical services, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

Kane's involvement in the international and professional hockey world began with the Hockey Canada program in 1984. As physiotherapist for the Canadian National and Olympic teams, Kane has extensive international hockey experience.

He spent four seasons with the Canadian National and Olympic teams, including serving as Team Canada's physiotherapist during the 1988 Winter Olympic competition in Calgary. His international experience also extends to numerous European tours and Spengler Cups.

A native of Toronto, ON, Kane attended the University of Toronto, graduating in 1981 with a Bachelor of Physical and Health Education. In 1985, he completed his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Therapy. Throughout university, Kane worked with the Varsity Blues hockey team.

He remained in Calgary after leaving the National Team program in 1988, opening a private physiotherapist practice. Terry and his wife Helen, a former world champion synchronized swimmer, live in Calgary year-round.

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Bobby Stewart, the team's equipment manager, has been a part of two Flames teams. Stewart joined the Atlanta Flames as their equipment manager prior to the start of the 1973-74 season and moved north to Calgary with the franchise in May, 1980. He will be entering his 24th season with the Flames franchise.

As the man in charge of all equipment and supplies for the Flames and their affiliated players, Stewart will outfit more than 50 players. During the season, you may find him sharpening skates, ordering sticks, mending pads or making a special adjustment to a piece of equipment that only players appreciate.

Along with servicing the daily needs of the players, Stewart efficiently coordinates the transfer of the team's equipment to other NHL cities during the season. It is a demanding job that requires constant attention and a thorough knowledge of the sporting goods industry.

Born and raised in Montreal, PQ, Bobby worked with the Montreal Jr. Canadiens for six years prior to joining the Flames. The Jr. Canadiens, an affiliate of the Montreal Canadiens, won two Memorial Cups during Stewart's tenure.

Bobby and his wife Sherri have one son. They reside in Calgary year-round.

TRAINER

Brian Patafie

Brian Patafie is entering his first season with the Calgary Flames Hockey Club as Trainer but is a familiar face around the organization. Patafie spent three seasons with the Saint John Flames and is in his 13th year as a member of the Calgary Flames organization.

Brian, hired on July 26th, will be assisting Terry Kane and Bobby Stewart in the training room with player treatments, rehabilitation and equipment, plus overseeing dressing room maintenance.

Patafie began his hockey career as a Head Trainer for the Utica Mohawks of the Eastern Hockey League. He also spent two years in the Ontario Hockey League with the Ottawa 67's followed by two seasons with the Montreal Canadiens' AHL affiliate, the Nova Scotia Voyageurs. Patafie then became a member of the Calgary Flames organization working with the Moncton Golden Flames for three years. Patafie then moved with Calgary's farm system to the International Hockey League with the Salt Lake City Golden Eagles. He would spend the next 6 years in Salt Lake prior to Calgary moving their top development affiliate team to Saint John.

Brian is presently a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Professional Hockey Trainers Society. In the off-season he teaches school in North Carolina.

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

"Badger" Bob Johnson was one of hockey's greatest boosters in both the city of Calgary, and throughout North America. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall-of-Fame on Apr. 10, 1992.

Blessed with tremendous enthusiasm, a positive outlook, and a tireless worker, Badger earned the reputation as one of the craftiest coaches in the National Hockey League.

He joined the Calgary Flames as head coach on June 1, 1982 from the University of Wisconsin. Following a number of personnel changes through his first two seasons, he led Calgary to their first 40-win season in 1984-85. Over the next three consecutive seasons, 1984-87, the Flames would surpass the 40-win mark and move into the NHL's higher echelon.

Perhaps his shiniest moment as the Flames head coach came during the 1986 playoff season. After eliminating Winnipeg in a three-game series sweep, the Flames and Edmonton faced off in a Battle of Alberta. The Flames prevailed in the hard-fought seven-game series, upending the heavily favored Oilers in what many people call the playoff series of the decade.

The Flames marched on during the '86 playoffs, eliminating St. Louis and meeting Montreal in the Stanley Cup final. It marked Calgary's first-ever Stanley Cup Championship appearance.

BOB JOHNSON

He left the Flames following the 1986-87 season, accepting the position of Executive Director for USA Hockey. Bob remains as the Flames winningest coach with 193 career wins. He left USA Hockey after three years to return to the National Hockey League and the Pittsburgh Penguins. In June, 1991, Badger "climbed to the top of the mountain", as the Penguins captured their first-ever Stanley Cup championship.

Badger's coaching career began in 1956 at Warroad, MN High School. In 1966 he moved to the University of Wisconsin, where he coached for 15 seasons, leading Wisconsin to three national championships. He coached numerous U.S. national teams in both World Championships and Olympic competitions.

Unfortunately a serious illness took the life of Bob Johnson on November 26, 1991, but his devotion to the game will never be forgotten. "It's a great day for hockey" is a remark hockey fans will always remember.

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

One of the newest members of the Hockey Hall-of-Fame is Flames Guy Lapointe. Lapointe was elected into the Hockey Hall of Fame on May 16, 1993, following a 16-year NHL career with Montreal, St. Louis and Boston.

One of the all-time great players in the history of the game, Lapointe began his NHL career with the Montreal Canadiens in 1968. Through the mid-'70's, Lapointe, along with fellow teammates Serge Savard and Larry Robinson, formed one of the top defence corps in NHL history.

Lapointe played 884 NHL career games with Montreal, St. Louis and Boston, recording 622 career points (171g, 451a). He also appeared in 123 career playoff games.

A member of five Stanley Cup championship teams, all with Montreal (1973, 1976, 1977, 1978, 1979), Lapointe played 13 of his 16 NHL seasons with the Canadiens. He appeared in four All-Star games, including three consecutive games from 1975-77.

GUY LAPOINTE

Lapointe was named to the NHL's First All-Star team following the 1972-73 season. He was selected to the NHL's Second All-Star squad in three consecutive seasons ('74-75, '75-76, '76-77).

His career accomplishments were given the athlete's ultimate recognition on May 16, 1993, when he was elected into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Following his retirement as an active player in 1983-84, Lapointe joined the Quebec Nordiques as an assistant coach. After one season with the Nordiques, he was appointed General Manager and Head Coach of the Longueuil Chevaliers of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

He spent two seasons with Longueuil, leading the Chevaliers to the 1987 Quebec League championship title, and a berth in the Memorial Cup championship tournament.

Lapointe returned to the National Hockey League and the Nordiques as an assistant coach prior to the start of the '87-88 season. He spent the next three seasons with Quebec, leaving the team after the '89-90 season.

He joined the Flames organization as a scout in July, 1990 and became an assistant coach on August 10, 1995.

Guy and his wife Louise have three children.

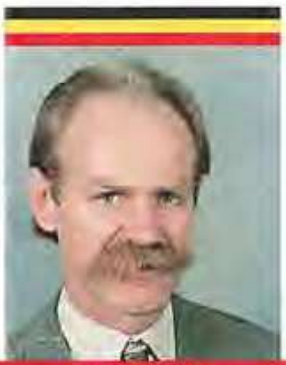
On September 21, 1992, Lanny McDonald was inducted into the Hockey Hall-of-Fame, marking the first time this honor has been bestowed upon a Calgary Flames player. It is an honor reserved for those players whose talents, determination, and dedication to the game has allowed them to rise above all others privileged to play in the National Hockey League.

McDonald, one of the most popular players to play in the NHL, currently serves as the Flames Vice-President of Corporate Development. In his current position, McDonald plays an integral part with the organization. He will assist the President, Executive Vice-President and other areas of the operation whenever and wherever necessary to enhance the involvement of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club with the Corporate Community both locally and nationally.



LANNY McDONALD

McDonald has continued the hard work prevalent during his 16 years in the NHL -- the last seven and a half seasons as a Flame and co-captain of Calgary's 1989 Stanley Cup championship team.

He fashioned a great NHL career that saw him go directly from Medicine Hat (WHL) to the Toronto Maple Leafs in the fall of 1973. He scored 500 goals, 506 assists and 1,006 points in 1,111 games -- all milestone achievements. Twice Lanny was named an NHL Second Team All-Star right winger (1977, 1983), won the Bill Masterton trophy (1982-83), the King Clancy Memorial trophy (1987-88) and was named the NHL Man-of-the-Year in 1988-89.

He holds the Flames record for most goals in a season (66, '82-83), scored 40-or-more goals in six seasons and 30-or-more goals in nine consecutive seasons (1975-84). In the playoffs, McDonald scored 44 goals, including three in overtime, and the go-ahead goal in Calgary's Stanley Cup clinching win at Montreal in 1989.

Lanny and his wife Ardell have four children. He is involved in many charities, especially the Special Olympics, Kids Help Phone, Alberta Children's Hospital, and the Children's Miracle Network Telethon.

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

In the space of 16 years, the Calgary Flames have become one of the premier franchises in the NHL -- on and off the ice. Won first Stanley Cup (1988-89); two Presidents' Trophies, first overall, (1987-88, 1988-89); two Clarence Campbell Conference titles (1985-86, 1988-89); three season and two Smythe Division playoff championships; two Pacific Division titles; and several NHL individual and team honors; and numerous attendance records.

On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they moved from The Omni (capacity 15,141) to the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). The Flames exchanged their fiery "A" to an explosive-looking "C".

Calgary's and the Flames' first ever NHL game, in the Corral, was against Quebec Nordiques, Oct. 9, 1980, a 5-5 tie. The last game was a 6-5 playoff win over Edmonton, April 18, 1983. In three seasons in the Corral the Flames played a total of 146 games (league, playoff and exhibition), including a thrilling win over the Soviet National Team, Jan. 2, 1983. The Flames lost only 28 regular season and 4 playoff games in the Corral.

The Calgary Flames, who are in their 16th NHL season and 12th in the Saddledome, are performing in one of the best entertainment facilities in North America. The Saddledome now seats over 20,000 for hockey. This facility opened Saturday, Oct. 15, 1983; when Edmonton edged the Flames 4-3. The Flames formally assumed management of the Saddledome on August 1, 1994.

The Canadian Airlines Saddledome recently underwent renovations, and was officially re-opened on October 25, 1995. New additions include premier dining and meeting facilities, 46 Chrysler Club Suites which are 14 rows from the ice and a club seating section with exclusive restaurants and lounges.

The history of the Flames' began when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, were granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. In the first game at

The Omni the Flames and Buffalo Sabres played to a 1-1 tie. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie.

Whereas the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at by a contest in Atlanta to choose the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980 Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest. Ownership of the Flames then consisted exclusively of six Calgary business people until June 15, 1990 when Norman Green left the Flames to become owner of the Minnesota (now Dallas) Stars.

On August 8, 1994 the Flames announced revisions to the club's ownership structure adding six new investors and seeing two (Norman Kwong, Sonia Scurfield) of the team's original owners leave by selling their entire interest in the club. The Flames now presently have nine owners who jointly control operations of the Saddledome and Hockey Club.
